The adoption deed should have been executed at the time of adoption and not at the time of applying for the concessions. The adoption of daughters will not be valid except in rare cases and where concessions are proposed on behalf of an adopted daughter, the matter shall be decided by the head of the institution concerned.

(2) "Brothers" and "Sisters" also include step-brothers and step-sisters and half-brothers and half-sisters.

This condition as to approved military service will apply also to members of the Indian Navy and the Indian Air Force. Mere recruitment to these two services does not confer on their children or other dependants eligibility for concessions.

(ii) The soldiers concerned should have rendered at least six months' approved military service with liability to serve overseas in a theatre of war between 3rd September 1939 and 31st August 1946.

(iii) Childern and dependants of soldiers whose present emoluments exceed Rs. 200 per mensem are not eligible for the concessions.

7. Scholarships will be withdrawn from those who stay for more than one year in one and the same class, but will be regranted on promotion to the next higher class. The head of the institution with the approval of the Director of Public Instruction or the Vice-Chancellor as the case may be, may continue the concessions for another year in the same class, where failure to secure promotion is due to extraordinary reasons like illness, change of residence, want of term days due to illness, etc.

8. Scholarships will not be granted or continued where the soldier or officer was discharged from military service by order of court martial or for misconduct or inefficiency or has been declared a deserter and has not been apprehended.

9. Scholarships should also be cancelled for misconduct on the part of the scholarship holder.

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL.

New Delhi, the 23rd June 1951.

Public Notice.

Sub.:—Import Trade Control Policy in respect of Established Importers and New Comers.

No. 109-ITC (P.N.)—51. The Government of India have reviewed their import licensing policy in the light of the suggestions made by the Import Advisory Council and of comments and criticisms from other sources. As a result of this review, the following decisions have been taken:—

(i) As regards established importers, it has been decided that this category will now consist of only such importers as have been actually engaged in the import trade for at least two out of the past five years, and the claims of existing importers of this class will have to be re-established on this basis.

(ii) As, however, trade with several other countries was interrupted during the last war, it has been decided that importers of goods from those countries will be permitted to have their quotas established on the basis of pre-war imports during the three years before the outbreak of the last war. In working out their quotas, due weightage will be given to the rise in prices which has taken place since the war.

(iii) It has also been decided that a new comer, to qualify for the category of established importer, must have actually done import business in the item concerned for at least two years.

2 The qualification for an applicant to receive consideration as a new comer will now be that he has dealt within the country in the particular commodity which he wishes to import, for at least two years. It has also been decided that the minimum value of a new comer's licence will in future be Rs. 10,000 unless it happens to be for items which are received in small consignments such as razor blades in which case the minimum will be Rs. 5,000.

3 Another important decision is that, where essential goods are concerned, the continued supply of which is necessary in the national interest, consideration will be given to the claim of a new sole agent of a foreign firm for an import licence even though he may not have past imports to his credit. This consideration will not, however, debar the previous sole agent from continuing to receive a quota as an importer provided he is otherwise qualified.

A. S. LALL,
Joint Secretary to the Government of India.
